PROTESTS:

Competitors desiring to enter a protest must lodge so, in writing, with the grounds upon which it is based, with the Convener together with the sum of $20.00 as a guarantee of bona fides. Should the protest upon investigation by the Art Form Committee, be deemed frivolous and unfounded, the deposit, whole or part, may be forfeited. No protests will be entertained unless made within thirty minutes of the Adjudicator's awards being announced. If such a protest is made before the Adjudicator has announced the award, such award will be withheld until the protest is investigated. The decision of the Art form Committee is final.

OUR JUNIOR SECTION ADJUDICATOR:-

Geoffrey Coker - MA, Bmus, LTCL, LMusTCL, AIRMT - Wellington

Geoffrey Coker has enjoyed an active solo singing career as a Counter-tenor in New Zealand and Australia singing with leading Choral Societies and Orchestras including the New Zealand Symphony Orchestra, the New Zealand National Youth Orchestra, and the Auckland Philharmonic Orchestra. He has performed in concerts, broadcasts and Television Programmes in Europe and North America, and recorded on the Kiwi Pacific and Ely labels.

After getting a taste for opera in the boys' chorus of the New Zealand Opera Company he later sang principal in premiere seasons of operas by David Farquhar and Dr Douglas Mews, and in modern revivals of operas by Caldara and John Eccles.

Geoffrey's introduction to singing was as a boy chorister in the choir of St Mary's Church Karori. After graduating from Victoria University he was awarded a Choral Scholarship to King's College Cambridge where he sang in the Choir under both Sir David Willcocks and Sir Philip Ledger, later again performing with both of these conductors in concerts in New Zealand. While at Cambridge he studied singing with the English Counter-tenor, Paul Esswood, and Composition with Alan Ridout. While a member of the King's College Choir he took part in eight recordings for the EMI and Argo labels, two programmes for BBCTV, two concerts as part of the Aldeburgh Festival and toured Belgium, Canada, Ghana, Sierra Leone, and Nigeria.

Geoffrey Coker's appointments as organist include fifteen years as Organist of St Peter's Church, and eight years as Organist at Old St Paul's in Wellington. His carol arrangements have been published by Fagus-Music, and recordings of them have been released on Raven CDs.

He retired from his lectureship at the New Zealand School of Music, Victoria University, in 2015 but continues as an international music examiner with Trinity College London and as a private singing teacher. He is a past president of the New Zealand Association of Teachers of Singing. Although teaching and examining students at University and diploma level, Geoffrey values the time he spends examining grades and adjudicating performances at all levels, both instrumental and vocal.
