TRADITIONAL IRISH DANCING SECTION

Saturday 1st & Sunday 2nd July 2023

VENUE: Villa Maria College
Peer St, Ilam, Christchurch

ADJUDICATOR: Suzanne Cox, ADCRG, Sydney

Suzanne Cox is the Principal of the Cox Academy of Irish Dance based in Sydney NSW. She began her dancing career at the age of 4 with the Rochford School, and danced with the Currie-Henderson Academy where she achieved many top placings at Nationals and International events as well as numerous National Ceili Titles. The Cox Academy now follows this success with her dancers achieving State Titles in both Solo and Ceili dancing and placing at the North American Championships and World Championships. Suzanne is also an Accredited Exercise Physiologist with Exercise and Sports Science Australia and works with athletes of a variety of sports to help them achieve their performance goals.

MUSICIAN: Jack Memaris

Jack is an accordion player from Brisbane, Australia who is quickly gaining recognition in the Irish dance music community. At just 20 years old, Jack is a final year student studying for his Bachelor of Music, majoring in Creative Music Technology. Jack's love for Irish music began as a child when he was an Irish dancer himself. His passion for the music grew as he became more familiar with it, and four years ago he began to learn the accordion. In 2022, Jack was invited to perform at several prestigious events in the Irish dance world, including the Australian International Oireachtas, the Australian National Championships, and the New Zealand National Championships. In addition to his performances, Jack is also a talented composer and has recorded some of his own Irish dance music, which blends traditional and contemporary influences. He is a member of several Irish bands and is excited to share his music with audiences worldwide. Jack's compositions will be released on FEIS the App in 2023. Jack wishes all the dancers the best of luck competing this weekend and hopes to see them at upcoming Irish dance events.

PHOTOGRAPHER: Vincent Mortimer,

Vincent has been photographing Irish Dancing Competitions in New Zealand since 2015 at both local and national competitions. He has been accredited to the World Championships twice and photographed at overseas competitions. This July he will also be photographing at the Australian International Oireachtas in Sydney.

When not taking, editing, or sorting photos for Irish Dancing competitions he can be found writing children/young adult fantasy books as an independently published author. He lives in Christchurch with his partner Avrael. He has two daughters – Niamh and Eos and one enthusiastic Labrador.

A wide selection of Vincent's Irish Dancing photos showcasing New Zealand Irish dancers and competitions can be found on Instagram at @irishdancenzphotos. Please follow the account if you don't already! If you would like access to higher resolution photos of your dancer from our competition you can contact Vincent through the Instagram page or via email irishdancenzphotos@icloud.com.

Photos from this year's Christchurch Competitions will be available through the Christchurch Competitions Facebook page. Vincent provides the photos free of charge as a service to the Irish Dancing community and to promote the sport.

We would like to give a huge thanks to all participating dance schools but an extra shout out to the Christchurch schools for their support in the setting up and running of the weekend. They enable a smooth and timely running of the competition.

Helen Balch

My candle burns at both ends;
It will not last the night;
But ah, my foes, and oh, my friends--
It gives a lovely light!

Helen was an important part of the society and will be dearly missed.
